

Communion from the Reserved Sacrament

Confession

If the Penitent is able to make his confession, the Priest says:
Let us confess our sins to the Lord and to each other.
Jas 5:16.

If the Penitent's condition permits, the Priest rehearses the confession with him:

I confess to Almighty God, the Lord of heaven and earth, and to you, my brothers and sisters: that I have sinned in my thoughts, words, and deeds through my own fault. Have mercy upon us, O God: After Your great goodness, according to the multitude of Your mercies, pardon our offenses and cleanse us from our sins for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

OR, if time is short, the Priest only rehearses:
I confess all my sins both known and unknown.

OR, if the Penitent is mortally ill and death is imminent, the Priest only says the Prayer of Absolution.

Absolution

Priest:

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of His Holy Spirit. (Mt 18:18). Amen.

Communion

The priest may deliver communion in either or both species, as appropriate:

For the Body:

The Body of Christ which was given for you, preserve your body and soul unto everlasting life. Amen.

For the Blood:

The Blood of Christ which was shed for you, preserve your body and soul unto everlasting life. Amen.

For the Body and the Blood together:

The Body and Blood of Christ which were given and shed for you, preserve your body and soul unto everlasting life. Amen.

Unction of the Sick and Dying

O blessed Redeemer, we ask you to relieve by Your indwelling power the distress of Your servant. Release him from sin and drive away all his pain and suffering: that, being restored to soundness of body and mind, he may offer to You praise and thanks. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I anoint you with oil and I lay my hands on you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, asking for you the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ: that all pain and sickness of body being put to flight, the blessing of health be with you. Amen.
